THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE:

Pick one distraction (an app, a show, a game) and delete it or set it aside for seven days. Every time you reach for it, spend that time with God instead. Read, pray, or just be still.

What I'm setting aside:

Spend time reflecting on these questions:

- ☐ Paul says to offer your whole self, not just part of it. Which part of your life is hardest to hand over?

- ☐ Where do you see the world trying to shape you that you didn't notice before?

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE:

Think of one friend who needs to know Jesus. Pray for them by name every day this week: for their heart, for what they're facing, and for a chance to talk with them about Jesus. Then invite them to church.

My one friend:

Days I prayed: ☐ M ☐ T ☐ W ☐ Th ☐ F ☐ Sat ☐ Sun

Spend time reflecting on these questions:

- ☐ Abram left before he knew where he was going. Where is God asking you to trust Him before you can see how it works out?

- ☐ James says hearing without doing is like forgetting your own face in a mirror. Why is it so easy to hear God and not do what He says?

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE:

Mary gave something that cost her. This week, take time to pray and ask God what you can give back to others that would help meet a need. Inventory in your life where you spend money and what it looks like to make intentional choices there that allows you to give sacrificially.

Spend time reflecting on these questions:

- ☐ Judas looked at Mary's gift and saw waste. Jesus saw worship. What makes the difference?

- ☐ What do you own that would be hardest to let go of? Why do you think that is?

At home reminder:

On November 15, you'll have the chance to support Biltmore's First Initiatives alongside your family. Take time to pray for your family and your church family that day.

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE:

Before you get on a screen each morning, spend time talking with God in prayer. Identify below specific things you want to pray about this week and then carve out 5 minutes each morning and 5 minutes each night to pray for those things.

Things I'm praying for this week:

Spend time reflecting on these questions:

- ☐ If someone looked at how you spent last week, what would they say matters most to you?

- ☐ Today you filled out a Commitment Card. What did you commit to, and what's your first step? What are you hoping to see God do through that commitment?
